JUSTICE K. S. HEGDE
(1909 to 1990)

Kawdoor Sadananda Hegde (June 16, 1909 - May 25, 1990) is a former Speaker of the Lok Sabha, a Supreme Court Judge, and the founder of the Nitte Education Trust. He is the father of Santhosh Hegde, who was also a Judge of the Supreme Court of India.

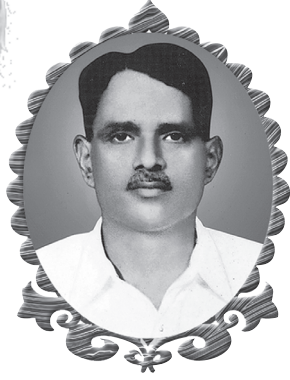

He served as a public prosecutor from 1947-51. In 1952, he was elected to the Rajya Sabha, a position which he held until 1957. In 1967, Hegde was appointed a Judge in the Supreme Court of India. On 30 April 1973, Hegde tendered his resignation, as a matter of principle, when one of his junior colleagues was appointed as the Chief Justice of India.

Thereafter, Hegde once again started taking an active part in socio-political movements. In 1977, he was elected to the Lok Sabha from the Bangalore South constituency on a Janata Party ticket. Hegde was elected from Bangalore to the Lok Sabha in 1977. Several months later, he became Speaker after the resignation of his predecessor, Neelam Sanjiva Reddy. He held the position from 1977 to 1980. He also established the Nitte Education Trust in 1979 to provide a high school to the village of Nitte. Hegde died in on May 24, 1990 in Karnataka. [1]

As a judge of the Supreme Court of India, his lordship was also a part of the thirteen judge bench which decided the famous Kesavananda Bharati V., State of Kerala. However, he resigned soon after delivering the majority judge, as Justice A. N. Ray was appointed the Chief Justice of India, although Hegde was senior judge at the time.

The K. S. Hegde Medical Academy, a medical college in Deralakatte and a unit of the Nitte Education Trust, was named after Hegde. The Justice KS Hegde Charitable Foundation, a trust dedicated to advancement of education and community development in Mangalore, was established in memory of Hegde.

DR. NITTE SHANKARA ADYANTHAYA (1905 to 1962)

Dr. Nitte Shankara Adyanthaya is the second son of Sri. Siddhu Shetty and Nitte Rukmini Adyanthaya. He was born on 22nd September, 1905. Sri. Siddhu Shetty was an agriculturist and owned vast land. He was a very forward thinking man and had a dream of educating his four children- two boys and two girls. At a very tender age of 6 years, Shankara Adyanthaya lost his father. Fate was unkind to him once again when he lost his mother at the age of 12. Young Shankara attended the Karkala Board High School. Being a bright and hard working student, he had an ambition to become a doctor. Unfortunately, the death of both his parents had shattered his dreams. However, his maternal aunt Smt. Sesamma supported his education and helped him to join Stanley Medical College, Madras where he completed his MBBS. During his studies he developed the values of simplicity, compassion and discipline.

Soon after his studies at Madras he started medical practice initially for a short while at Udupi. Soon young Dr. Shankar Adyanthaya realised that his services were more required at Karkala. Thus he came to Karkala. Later he went to Calcutta to do a PG diploma in ophthalmology. He soon became a very popular doctor not only in the town but also in the neighbouring villages. Medical profession during the 1930s and 1940s was more of social service as there were not many hospitals and commuting was difficult because of the poor transport facilities. This did not deter Dr. Shankara Adyanthaya and he took up this task by making huge sacrifice of his personal life. He even had facilities attached to his clinic for patients on who he had operated for cataract. He was very methodical, punctual, disciplined, and humane in his approach in his work and profession. Many times he would give the patients money for travelling and would also give food grains to the poor during his home visits.

Always dressed in impeccable white, Dr. Shankara Adyanthaya was very particular about cleanliness and hygiene. He would always uphold 'dignity of labour' and would not hesitate to clean the litter in and around his clinic and house. He was a soft spoken and an affectionate doctor and was thus loved and respected by one and all. He had a special affection for patients from Nitte. In addition to serving his patients, Dr. Shankara Adyanthaya was very much interested in agriculture and animal husbandry and was a role model for Nitte village in both these areas. He was one of the first to introduce large scale cultivation of arecanut and coconut in the area.

Dr. Shankara Adyanthaya married Kumuda the eldest daughter of Sri Kowdoor Srinivas Hegde and Smt. Rathi Hegde and had six children. Their three daughters Vatsala, Vidya and Sujatha are married to men of stature respectively to Dr. N. R. Shetty, who was the Vice- Chancellor of Bangalore University, and Sri B. R. Hegde, an engineer and a Trustee of Nitte Education Trust and Sri N. Vinaya Hegde, the President of Nitte Education Trust, the Chancellor of Nitte University and the Chairman of Lamina group of companies. The three sons Sri Siddu Adyanthaya, was senior executive with Air-India, Sri Devdas Adyanthaya and Sri Jeevandas Adyanthaya are businessmen. Dr. Shankara Adyanthaya always wanted to start a high school in Nitte as he had a special affection for its people. This interest in rural education and the motivation of his sister Meenakshi Hegde, the wife of Justice K S Hegde, Founder of Nitte Education Trust, paved the way for starting schools and colleges to be named after him.

On 30th July, 1962 he suddenly passed away leaving behind a fine legacy of humanitarian values.

Make me a channel of Your peace
Where there is hatred, let me bring Your love
Where there is injury, Your pardon Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in You

So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul
Make me a channel of Your peace
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness, ever joy

Where words come out from the depth of truth
Where tireless striving stretches its arms towards perfection.
Where the clear stream of reason has not lost its way into the dreary desert sand of dead habit.
Where the mind is lead forward by Thee
Into ever widening thought and action.
Into that heaven of freedom,
My father, let my country awake.

- Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore

माता तू दया करके

माता तू दया करके, कर्मों से छुड़ा देना ।
इतनी सी विनय तुमसे, चरणों में जगह देना ॥
जीवन के चौराहे पर मैं सोच रहा कब से,
जाऊं तो किधर जाऊं, यह पूछ रहा मन से ।
पथ भूल गया हूं मैं, तुम राह दिखा देना ॥इतनी...२॥

MUJHE IS DUNIYA MEIN LAYA

Mujhe is duniya mein laya,
Mujhe bolna chalna sikhaya,
O maat pita tumhe Vandan,
Maine kismat se tumhe paya. ॥ 2 ॥
main jab se jag mein aaya,
Bane tab se sheetal chhaya,
Kabhi sahlaya godi mein,
Kabhi kandho pe bithaya,
Mere sar par haath rakh kar,
Bas pyar hi pyar lutaya,
O maat pita tumhe Vandan,
Maine kismat se tumhe paya. ॥ Mujhell
Aanshu banke na girunga,
Maa baap ka dil jo dukha de,
Main aisa kuchh na karunga,
Maa baap ke roop mein maine,
Bhagwan ko jaise paya,
O maat pita tumhe Vandan,
